J.R. BRUNO & ASSOCIATES BRINGS BUSINESS LENDING EXPERTISE TO BOSTON

Leading SBA and Business Lending Consulting Firm Opens Boston Office to Better Serve Massachusetts Financial Institutions

GLENDORA, CALIF. (June 2008) – J.R. Bruno & Associates, a leading Southern California-based SBA and business lending consulting firm, has opened an office in Boston to better serve financial institutions in Massachusetts, the firm’s CEO Joanna Bruno has announced. J.R. Bruno offers a full range of services, helping financial institutions nationwide create business lending departments or enhance existing programs. Services are custom-tailored to each institution’s business lending goals and overall corporate strategies.

“Now with our Boston-based office, we can guide more institutions through the technicalities of SBA and business lending, and provide the hands-on education and training needed to maintain profitable programs,” says Bruno, whose firm has served the financial services community for 13 years. “We’re delighted Staci Sheehan has joined our team to run our new office in Boston. Staci brings more than 10 years experience in all phases of the business loan process. Her inside-out understanding benefits lenders and businesses in the short-and long run,” says Bruno.
